His first novel All She Wants was published in 2012 by Pan Books. Since 2013, Harvey has co-written the Radio Four sitcom series What Does the K Stand For? based on the experiences of comedian Stephen K. Amos growing up as a teenager in south London in the 1980s. The programme's third series commenced in January 2017.

I want to read his others now because I love the way he writes; full of humour but a great warmth and humanity too. This is the story of two women set in two eras: Shirley, who stole a baby in 1981, and Rachel, the baby she stole, now pregnant herself, in 2017.

The Years She Stole by Jonathan Harvey - Goodreads

Filled with Jonathan Harvey's trademark wit, warmth and outrageous humour, The History of Us is a novel about friendship and secrets, the choices we make and the consequences we face. Liverpool 1985 Kathleen, Adam and Jocelyn are three teenage friends who bond over an unconventional nativity play. They all have ambitions, they all have dreams.
